Get Ready, Nashville!

Join us at the Small & Diverse Business Expo (SDBX) Nashville event for a morning of information, resources, and networking that will help build your business and better prepare you to seize the exciting opportunities ahead in Nashville's East Bank, and across the Metro Region.

Four of Nashville's top builders – Clark Construction Group, BELL Construction Company, Mortenson, and Pinnacle Construction Partners (CBMP) – are looking to grow their network of small and diverse businesses in construction, engineering, and professional services fields, to help build upcoming projects that will further enhance Music City.

How SDBX Can Benefit Your Business:

- Learn about upcoming construction opportunities in Nashville's East Bank and beyond
- Connect with members of the CBMP leadership team and learn about their commitment to growing and empowering small and diverse firms
- Build relationships with experts in banking, legal, bonding, and other fields that will help your business thrive
- Learn how to become certified with state and local agencies
- Network with other industry professionals, including some of Nashville's leading trade contractors
- Learn about CBMP's Small Business Advisory Network and Strategic Partnership Program, and how your firm can participate

This event is free and open to small, local and diverse business owners and leaders in the construction, engineering, and architecture industries.
